District Committee Workshop

Essential training for all District volunteers and council leadership

LDS Church in Greenville, 307 Martinsborough Rd.

Registration: $16.00- morning refreshments, lunch, council strip and materials provided

This training experience provides basic training to members of a District Committee. Through this Workshop, District volunteers learn the basics of their own jobs as well as the other jobs on the District Committee, inspiring greater teamwork and cooperation. Where possible, breakout sessions will be led by council board members assigned to similar tasks.
