

Green Bar ILST

Introduction to Leadership Skills for Troops

When: Friday-Sunday, October 4, 5, & 6 2019

Check-in: Friday between 6:00 pm & 8:00 pm

Check-out: Sunday 10:00 am

Where: Camp Sam Hatcher, Sam Hatcher Road, Newport, NC

Event Details: White Oak River District will offer a course of study for the Patrol Method and all youth leadership positions within a BSA Troop. This course will give the young leader a start to a solid foundation as they start their journey of leading Scouts. The course will cover three modules:

- Troop Organization: Troop, District, Council, and National level responsibilities.
- Tools of the Trade: Core Skills to Help Lead, Communication, Planning, and Teaching.
- Leadership and Teamwork: Team Characteristics, Team Development, Ethics and Values of a Leader.

GREEN BAR
ILST

"Train'em, Trust'em, and Let'em Lead"
Green Bar Bill Hillcourt, 1939

Eligibility: All Scouts BSA youth that are currently in a leadership position that have not attended NYLT or any Scout that wants to hold a leadership position within their Troop.

Cost: $25.00 per Scout
Price includes all meals and all course materials. Participants should eat prior to checking in on Friday. There will only be a light snack provided on Friday. Food restrictions: notify event director so arrangements can be made.

Registration: All participants must register and pay for this event online: <https://ecc.tentaroo.com> Last day to register is Sep 27th.

Uniform: Full Class A Scout Uniform along with a change of clothes as needed. Participants should pack appropriately for weather conditions.

Gear List: Personal Camping Gear, Tent or Hammock, Scouts 10 Essentials, Camp Chair, Notebook/Pad, Pen/Pencil, Scout Handbook, BSA Health Forms A&B, and an Open Mind & Great Attitude.

Point of Contact:

Scott Mastranzio
Scoutmaster Troop 81
ILST Event Director
910-381-4043

smastranzio@gmail.com