The screenshot shows the my.Scouting login and registration interface. A modal dialog box is centered on the screen, displaying the following text: "Please login or create an account to proceed. To start or continue your application, please login to your my.Scouting account or create a new account." with an "OK" button. The background page is split into two panels. The left panel, on a dark blue background, says "Welcome to my.Scouting" and "New to Scouting or don't have an account?". It includes a paragraph about account benefits and a "CREATE ACCOUNT" button. The right panel, on a light gray background, features the Boy Scouts of America logo, the text "Login to my.Scouting", input fields for "Username" and "Password", a "LOGIN" button, a "Forgot username / password?" link, and social login options for Google and Apple.

Welcome to the BSA!

The BSA makes Scouting available to our nation's youth by chartering community organizations to operate Cub Scout packs, Scouts BSA troops, Venturing crews, and Sea Scout ships. The chartered organization provides an adequate and safe meeting place as well as capable adult leadership, and requires adherence to the principles and policies of the BSA. The BSA local and national council provide training, program, outdoor facilities, literature, professional guidance, and liability insurance protection.

Parent/Legal Guardian Role in Scouting

Scouting uses a fun program to promote character development, citizenship training, leadership, and mental and physical fitness. You can help by encouraging attendance, assisting with your child's advancement, attending meetings for parents, and assisting the unit when called upon to help. The unit cannot provide a quality program without your help.

Parent Agreement.

I have read the Scout Oath and Scout Law, and I want my child to join Scouting. I will assist them in abiding by the policies of the BSA and the chartered organization. I will:

- Serve as an adult partner while my child is a Lion or Tiger.
Help my Scout grow through completion of advancements.

By signing here you agree and accept the Terms and Conditions of the Boy Scouts of America.
